Description:
Report Child Abuse and Neglect 855 O-H-CHILD

Ohioans who suspect child abuse or neglect now only need to remember one phone number.

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services has launched 855-O-H-CHILD (855-642-4453), an automated telephone directory that will link callers directly to a child welfare or law enforcement office in their county.

Reports can be anonymous.

What information do I need to make a report?

1. The name and address of the child you suspect is being abused or neglected
2. The age of the child
3. The name and address of the parents or caretakers
4. The name of the person you suspect is abusing or neglecting the child and the address if available
5. The reason you suspect the child is being abused and neglected
6. Any other information which may be helpful to the investigation
7. You have the option of giving your name or reporting anonymously. Giving your name can help the investigator clarify information. The agency will not give your name to the person suspected of abusing the child.

Please Note: All of the above information is not needed to make a report. If you are not sure you have enough information to report, always err on the safety of the child. Children services screens all reports to determine if there is enough information to investigate.

Background

The AIDS Clinical Trials Information Service (ACTIS) was mandated by the Health Omnibus Programs Extension Act (HOPE) in 1988. This legislation required the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to provide a telephone reference service to disseminate HIV/AIDS clinical trials information to health professionals and the general public. ACTIS, which was created by an interagency team at NIAID, FDA, NLM, and CDC, opened in 1989. During the 11 years of its existence, the service responded to more than 225,000 telephone requests for HIV/AIDS clinical trials information.

As new therapies and guidelines for the treatment of HIV/AIDS were approved, the need to provide up-to-date information in these areas became apparent. In 1994, six Public Health Service (PHS) agencies joined together to launch the HIV/AIDS Treatment Information Service (ATIS) as a vehicle to quickly convey this information to people living with HIV and health care providers. ATIS became the central dissemination point for the PHS treatment guidelines through the telephone reference service and the ATIS website. ATIS was supported by funding from many PHS agencies including NIH, the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA, now the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services – CMS), CDC, and HRSA.

ACTIS and ATIS were merged into a single information service, AIDSinfo (https://aidsinfo.nih.gov), which became operational on December 1, 2002. infoSIDA (https://infosida.nih.gov), the Spanish-language companion website to AIDSinfo, was launched in April 2007.

Charlie 3/4 House

Cincinnati OH 45202

Area(s) Served:
Hamilton County

Description:
The sole purpose of Charlie`s 3/4 House, Inc. is to provide acceptable and affordable housing for alcoholic men in the early stages of sobriety, while they work on their recovery from alcoholism and find suitable employment.

Founded in 1979, Charlie`s 3/4 House, Inc. began with one man offering a newly recovering alcoholic a safe place to stay for a short time. Today, Charlie`s 3/4 House, Inc. provides transitional housing for approximately 200 residents per year, with occupancy throughout the year consistently over 96% and a waiting list of 8-12 men.

Charlie`s residential program requires that a potential resident will have completed a recognized program. Further, the applicant will have demonstrated his commitment to continuous sobriety, a willingness to find gainful employment and agrees to attend daily AA meetings.

Once admitted each person must submit to random drug/alcohol screenings and follow the plan outlined during their detox program and follow the 12 recovery steps of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Each year, of the 200 different residents who live at Charlie`s (each for a various length of time), over 100 of these men return to the community meeting our definition of success. The criteria used to define success are that:

- The resident has maintained over 90 days of continuous sobriety,
- The resident has secured gainful continuous employment, and
- His earnings are sufficient to allow the resident to financially support himself, and
- The resident, when he leaves Charlie`s moves into their own living quarters or moves back to live with their family, from whom he had been estranged.

421-LIFE (5433) is Hamilton County’s 24-hour elder abuse and neglect reporting line. Since 1981, Ohio has required counties to investigate reports of abuse, neglect, self-neglect and exploitation involving adults 60 and older.

Adult Protective Services (APS), a part of the Hamilton County Department of Job and Family Services, operates 421-LIFE. APS workers receive and investigate reports, identify risks to the safety and well-being of alleged victims, and work to improve situations by connecting older adults with social services and other resources. APS workers sometimes make referrals to police for criminal investigation.

APS workers cannot force older adults to take help. Mentally competent adults have the right to refuse APS assistance and intervention.
APS workers cannot make older adults go into nursing homes. In fact, APS is committed to helping adults stay in their own homes as long as they safely can, or helping them find the least restrictive alternative.

We urge you to become familiar with the warning signs of elder abuse and neglect contained in this brochure and call 421-LIFE if you have concerns. All calls are confidential.

Are you struggling with a health condition such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, fibromyalgia, or arthritis?

The Healthy-U Chronic Disease Self-Management Program is proven to improve quality of life -- and save money by reducing health care expenses. It’s free to adults of any age with any on-going health condition and/or their caregivers.

Healthy U is a small group workshop that focuses on problem solving and building self-confidence to help people maintain their health and manage chronic health conditions. Many people struggle to manage symptoms of chronic disease -- especially older adults who are more likely to be living with more than one chronic illness. In 2009, the Surgeon General estimated that 50% of older Americans were living with at least two chronic health conditions (at least 80% had one).

The workshops are led by trained facilitators -- usually non-health professionals who have a chronic disease themselves. Participants meet for six weeks, once a week, for two and a half hours, and learn to control their symptoms through: relaxation techniques, diet and exercise changes, managing sleep and fatigue, using medications correctly, and communication with family members, friends and health care providers.

Healthy U, developed at Stanford University as the Chronic Disease Self Management Program, is successful because it was developed with input from people who have chronic diseases themselves. COA is offering the workshop locally through a grant from the Ohio Department of Aging and the federal Administration on Aging.

For information about workshop dates and locations, click here or call (513) 721-1025 and ask for Healthy-U.

Council on Aging is looking for individuals and organizations who are interested in offering the Healthy-U program. Healthy-U leaders are either adults (preferably with a chronic health condition) or professionals such as nurses, care managers, health educators, etc. Healthy-U leaders:

- receive specialized training and easy-to-use instructional materials
- learn new skills and gain valuable experience in program delivery
- experience the satisfaction of changing lives with a proven effective program

Click here for more information, or call (513) 721-1025 and ask for Healthy-U.

Description:

Led by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), the QIO Program is one of the largest federal programs dedicated to improving health quality at the local level. The Program aligns with the six CMS Quality Strategy goals:

1. Make care safer by reducing harm caused in the delivery of care.
2. Ensure that each person and family are engaged as partners in their care.
3. Promote effective communication and coordination of care.
4. Promote the most effective prevention and treatment practices for the leading causes of mortality, starting with cardiovascular disease.
5. Work with communities to promote wide use of successful interventions to enable healthy living.
6. Make quality care more affordable for individuals, families, employers, and governments by developing and spreading new health care delivery models.

QIOs work with local health care providers, serving as change agents, conveners, and collaborators. They form groups of health care providers and other stakeholders to learn from one another and to use that knowledge in making care more patient-centered, safer, and coordinated. Because QIOs share best practices with one another, providers benefit from the experience of their peers across the country, which further accelerates improvement. QIOs also help Medicare beneficiaries exercise their right to high-quality health care. Patients benefit from the QIO Program’s charge to address beneficiaries’ quality of care complaints and discharge appeals as well as from the QIO improvement initiatives those complaints and appeals inspire.

Through its national network of independent, trusted organizations, the QIO Program is collaborating with providers at all levels of clinical performance to improve health quality in five key areas:

- Keeping the patient at the center
- Preventive care
- Improving care coordination
- Better data for better care
- Safer care

Under the federal Older Americans Act, every state is required to have an Ombudsman Program that addresses complaints and advocates for improvements in the long-term care system.

The ombudsman program is administered by the Administration on Aging (AoA). The network has 7,331 volunteers certified to handle complaints and 1,320 paid staff. Most state ombudsman programs are housed in their State Unit on Aging. Nationally, in 2016 the ombudsman program investigated over 199,493 complaints on behalf of 125,642 individuals and provided information on long-term care to another 378,582 people.

Visit the AoA website for more information.

Whether through individual contact with residents or systemic advocacy, ombudsmen make a difference in the lives of residents in long-term care facilities everyday.

You are encouraged to report matters involving Medicaid fraud, waste and abuse. To assist you in combating fraud you are being provided with the following guidelines.

- The name of the Medicaid client
- The client's Medicaid card number
- The name of the doctor, hospital, or other health care provider
- The date of service
- The amount of money that Medicaid approved and/or paid
- A description of the acts that you suspect involves fraud or abuse relating to your allegation.

Who to Contact

Contact Your State Directly - Medicaid is a joint Federal and State-funded program. Although the Federal Government requires that certain persons are eligible for Medicaid benefits and sets standards for quality of care, the States carry out most of the day-to-day business of Medicaid. If you suspect that fraud is being committed against Medicaid, your first contact should be the Program Integrity contact in the agency that oversees your State's Medicaid program, which is usually called the State Medicaid Agency.

In Ohio: Ohio Department of Job and Family Services or Ohio Attorney General's Office

To report welfare fraud: 614-728-7741 or 800-627-8133 (ODJFS)
To report general Medicaid fraud: 800-282-0515 (Attorney General)

Call the OIG National Fraud Hotline - A second way to report suspected fraud in Medicaid is to call the Office of Inspector General's (OIG) National Fraud Hotline or submit your report online. This hotline handles calls about both Medicaid and Medicare, but it is not as direct as calling your State contact.

If you choose to use the Hot Line and/or submit online as a means of reporting fraud, you are still asked to use the guidelines listed above before you make your call.

At The Jewish Hospital — Mercy Health, we’re proud of our legacy as the first Jewish hospital in the United States, founded in 1850 to serve the Jewish community of Cincinnati. Yet since the beginning, we’ve been privileged to welcome and care for people of all faiths. To this day, our doctors, residents, nurses and staff remain focused on delivering compassionate care and the best outcomes for patients and their families.

The Jewish Hospital — Mercy Health was founded in 1850, when a cholera epidemic sickened thousands of Cincinnatians. The Jewish community saw a need to provide care for poor Jews, and founded the first Jewish hospital in the United States. Since its early days, The Jewish Hospital has always welcomed and cared for people of every faith.

The Jewish Hospital's legacy of teaching the next generation of physicians dates back more than 100 years, and today, residents in surgery, medicine, podiatry and pharmacy all train at The Jewish Hospital.

The Jewish Hospital — Mercy Health is located in Kenwood, a Cincinnati suburb that provides convenient access from around the Tristate.

Ohio SMP Is Seeking Volunteers

Did you know that one out of every seven Medicare dollars goes to fraud, waste and abuse? That Medicare fraud, waste and abuse cost you $13 billion?

To help address this national problem, Pro Seniors receives funding from the Administration on Aging for a Senior Medicare Patrol Project. Named Ohio SMP this project helps older Americans be wiser health care consumers. Seniors are taught to better understand their Medicare statements so they can detect potential fraud and errors and then take the appropriate steps to correct them.

At the heart of Ohio SMP are volunteers who are often retirees. They educate groups of older Americans about illegitimate Medicare practices or provide individual assistance to those questioning the accuracy of their statements. Presentations may be offered in the volunteer’s own community at churches, retired professional organizations, social groups and other locations where seniors gather. Project staff is also available to assist in coordinating presentations. In addition to the Administration on Aging, Ohio SMP has received strong support from the Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio.

Anyone interested in volunteering may contact Jane Winkler at (513) 458-5523.

Each year, the OSMB receives over 4,000 complaints. Many times, the complaints turn out to be simple misunderstandings between the health care provider and the patient or the patient’s family that can be resolved without the intervention of the OSMB or other agency. You can help yourself be a smart healthcare consumer by considering the following suggestions:

- Discuss your concerns with your healthcare provider
- Ask about the practitioner’s fee when scheduling an appointment
- Understand your insurance policy
- Check with your insurance carrier to be sure that your physician is an approved provider for the insurance plan

You may file a complaint by mail or by telephone. The OSMB will answer any questions you may have about whether the board can handle your complaint. If the OSMB cannot handle your complaint, you may be referred to another agency.

Homelessness Prevention
St. Vincent de Paul’s help is diverse and far-reaching, but it begins in prevention. For those living paycheck to paycheck an unexpected expense such as a car repair or a child’s medical bill can set the whole household over budget. Often a small investment to help with a rent or utility bill will save a family from eviction or having water or electricity turned off and ultimately catches them before they become homeless.

Using Medications Safely

Description:

Medications are probably the single most important means that health care professionals have to help prevent illness, disability and death in the geriatric population. When used correctly, prescribed or over-the-counter medications can greatly improve the health and independence of older Americans.

Safety Tips for Using Medications At Home

- Use a medication box or other system to manage your daily medications.
- Ask your pharmacist for suggestions.
- Write out a medication schedule and keep it with your medications.
- Always drink plenty of water after swallowing a tablet or capsule.
- Sit or stand when swallowing medications. This prevents them from getting stuck in your throat.
- Do not crush medications until you check with your pharmacist.
- Never take medications prescribed for some one else.
- Never stop taking a medication without first consulting your physician.
- Keep medications out of the reach of children and memory-impaired persons.
- Store all medications in a cool, dry place. A closet may be preferable to a medicine cabinet.
- Discard outdated medications and those left over from a previous prescription.

At the Doctor`s Office and the Pharmacy:

Get clear instructions regarding your medications:

- Name of the medicine.
- Purpose: Why you are taking the medicine.
- Dose: How and when to take the medicine.
- Duration: How long to take the medicine.
- Effects: What results to expect from the medicine and what to do if the expected results do not occur.
- Side Effects: Possible side effects and what to do if side effects or unexpected reactions occur.
- Restrictions: What to avoid while taking the medication.

Other tips:

- Have all your prescriptions filled at one pharmacy, if possible so the pharmacist can check for drug interactions.
- Ask your pharmacist about generic medications, which may be equally effective as brand name, but less expensive.
● Ask your pharmacist about easy-open medication containers.
● Ask your pharmacist whether your medications can be delivered to your home.
● Ask your pharmacist for help selecting non-prescription medications.

Description:
The Warren County Department of Human Services is the mandated agency responsible for providing protective services for those adults sixty (60) years of age or older at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation. Description:

The YMCA's vision to improve the quality of life in Greater Cincinnati is supported by local and national networks focused on mobilizing our communities. In collaboration with schools, businesses, health care sites, and other community agencies, the Y is driven to turn the tide on the epidemic of obesity and chronic diseases.
YMCAs are founded to serve the whole individual spirit, mind and body and the whole community, from infants to seniors. Health and fitness are critical to the YMCA mission, and have been for over 100 years.

Physical activity for all ages is an important part of the Y experience, but is only one aspect of overall health. In over 120 countries children and adults are learning values and life skills at YMCAs; from fitness to child care, tutoring to serving their communities ... it's all part of the YMCA experience. To find out more about the programs the Y has to offer visit their website here.
