

Aging Connections

Clermont County

There's so much to learn as we age! Join us for this free event to be connected with resources that truly make a difference. You can:

- Visit information booths and talk with experts about health and wellness, frauds and scams, in-home care, and more.
- Explore aging-related benefits that might be right for you.
- Pick up a free snack pack from IPM Food Pantry.
- Be a raffle winner!

September 10, 2024 | 1:30 – 3 p.m.
Union Township Administration Building
4350 Aicholtz Road, 45245

Scan here to learn more and register by September 5.

Questions? Call Lisa: (513) 345-2019.

more →

Connect with Experts

Explore Council on Aging's programs and benefits that support independence and keep you connected to your community.

Learn how Clermont Senior Services supports you by providing and coordinating in-home and community-based services.

Social isolation, limited transportation and mobility issues can make individuals more vulnerable to the impacts of disasters. Learn the importance of being prepared – and ways to do it.

Frauds and scams are everywhere – many aimed at older adults. Learn from Pro Seniors and Senior Medicare Patrol how to NOT become a victim.

IPM Food Pantry

Visit the IPM Food Pantry table to pick up a free snack pack and learn how IPM is more than a traditional food pantry.

Learn from Clermont County Public Health about programs to protect you from disease, promote health and protect the environment.

Visit with a local Social Security representative and learn about their programs, services and benefits.

Special thanks to Union Township for providing space for this event.

Council on Aging is the Area Agency on Aging serving Clermont County.
Contact us: (513) 721-1025 | (800) 252-0155 | www.help4seniors.org