

STAY As You Age CONNECTED

There's so much to learn as we age! Join Council on Aging and a team of experts to get connected to programs, services and resources that can help you or a loved one live life to its fullest – and on your terms!

Aging Connections

April 9, 2024 | 2 – 4 pm

Walnut Hills Branch Library
2533 Kemper Lane, 45206

Scan here to learn more and register by April 5

Questions? Call Lisa: 513-345-2019

more →

What you'll learn:

Talk with us about programs, services and benefits that can help you be independent in your home and stay connected to your community. Find out if you are eligible!

Fraud is everywhere and scammers are trying new tactics every day – tactics aimed at older adults. Information is power! Experts from Pro Seniors and the Hamilton County Prosecutor's Office will share information to help prevent you from becoming a victim.

What would you do if you needed to shelter in place at home for days without electricity? Learn why it is especially important for older adults to be prepared in an emergency – and ways to do it.

You're always at an appropriate age to have fun! And fun is just what CRC offers. Learn about events designed for older adults through Cincinnati Recreation Centers.

Health challenges affect everyone – no matter the color of their skin. It's often necessary to advocate for yourself, but not easy to do. Learn how The Center for Closing the Health Gap can help.

Special thanks to the Walnut Hills Branch of the Cincinnati & Hamilton County Public Library for providing space for this event.

Questions? Call Lisa: 513-345-2019.

