

UPLIFT Memory Support Program

A collaboration between:

Support for Individuals and Families Facing Memory Changes

A memory change or new diagnosis can bring a lot of questions. You don't have to figure it out alone.

Uplift is here to help you take the next steps with confidence and support.

What We Offer – A Personalized Approach

Every situation is different. Support is tailored to your needs, your goals and your family at any stage of the journey. You'll have access to a caring team that can help with:

- Understanding what a diagnosis may mean
- Talking through next steps
- Connecting to helpful programs and services
- Planning for future needs
- Learning about memory changes
- Supporting family members and care partners
- Finding ways to stay safe, independent and connected
- Coping with changes and emotions along the way
